'Squeeze'

Judging by the new Duncan Hines cake recipes of which commercials continually tell us, Duncan must have invented many more cakes since his demise than he did before.

THE SOUTH KOREAN rebels announced that they would restore power to the people once political corruption was ended. From what I have heard of old Chinese customs, that shouldn't take more than 1,000,000 years— but probably will.

I'VE NEVER BEEN in the Orient but have some trusted friends who have, and they tell me that "squeeze" is such an expected custom that putting an end to it would seem improper to those in high position— things like that simply aren't done by the best people. The Chinese call it "Cunsha."

Millions of dollars of American aid, in the Far East and elsewhere, has been "squeezed" by so many higher-ups that none of it has gotten down to the ragged and hungry and sick. One friend told me only the aid distributed by the Armed Forces and the missionaries reached those who need it most.

That is shocking. But let's not be too smug and holier-than-thou. Aren't all of us victims of "squeeze" when giant corporations conspire to fix prices—or when labor holds up the missile program at Cape Canaveral?

Let's hope future generations won't have to look back on our era as one in which history's greatest nation began to disintegrate because "squeeze" was the accepted thing in so many high circles.

FIRST SIGN of dangerous decay is acceptance of this or that merely because "everybody's doing it." How many persons do you know who don't like cocktails but serve them because they're customary in their set—or in what they consider the smart set?

How many do you know who laugh at or at least discreetly smile at stories or references which are dirtily risqué, just because they might be considered unsophisticated if they didn't?

NOPE. Don't think I've turned preacher on you. I've enjoyed many a cocktail, in the right company, and many a risqué story, too, if it was really funny. But all of us who know any history know what abuse of power and position, plus greed and dissipation, have done to the greatest nations of the past and also to vast numbers of the greatest men.

It seems to me that the highest aspiration of some "successful" persons is to get more money so they can engage in more expensive follies.

I love this country and don't want to see it go down the "Everybody's Doing It Trail."

Jean Liliano Will Develop Tract

City Planning Commission has accepted a new tentative map for a 35-lot subdivision north of Grand View Ave. Jean Liliano will subdivide the tract, will conform to the new R-H hillside ordinance, and provide a 40-foot road leading into the acreage from the west.

Authorities Charge Real Estate Dealer With Arson

Bail $5,250 . . .

Sheriff's Inquiry

A Sierra Madre real estate dealer, John Hudson Roscoe, also named in the complaint as John Hudson Rasco, 58, of 71 Hacienda, Arcadia, according to records at the Sierra Madre Police Department, has been charged with arson and attempt to defraud an insurance company. The complaint was issued by the Los Angeles District Attorney's office following investigation by the Los Angeles County Arson Squad quartered at Temple City, into the fire which practically gutted the 40-year-old, two-story and attic wooden home at 165 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., the afternoon of Tuesday, May 16.

He denies that he set fire to the building or had anything to do with the blaze. Arraignment has been set for Friday.

LOSS WAS estimated at around $20,000, covered by $17,000 insurance. Roscoe is described as owner of the building which had been vacated the day before by Jack Harold, his wife and six children preparatory to their return to their former home in Indiana.

Roscoe, taken into custody by Officers Robert A. Heasley and Douglas C. Tucker of the Sierra Madre police, was released in $5,250 bail.

Chief Charles E. Brown of the Sierra Madre Fire Department, reported that the fire originated in the service porch of the building and spread upward. Firemen combatted the flames and smoke for 90 minutes before bringing the fire under control.

Assistance from the Arson Squad was asked almost immediately after the fire. Roscoe had the house up for sale with a $27,500 price tag attached to it.

Pay Boost
Put Over by
City Council

The City Council Tuesday night put over the pleas of the City Employees Association, notably the police, for a general wage increase. Also changes in the state retirement and holiday and vacation plans.

It was pointed out by Police Department members, after the meeting, that both county and Los Angeles Police Department members have received pay boosts averaging 11 per cent.

The proposed Yarnell zone change from R-1 to R-3, approved by the City Planning Commission on property owned by N. K. Yarnell, recently resigned from the commission, at E. Sierra Madre Blvd. and N. Mountain Trail, was opposed by Kenneth Moyer, Daniel L. Daugherty, Thomas G. Edwards, Mrs. Burton Poesdell, Samuel Schwartz, Mrs. Mary Moyer and others. Atty. Noren Eaton appeared for Yarnell.

Commr. Seiler Will Speak at Cason Home

A coffee and speakers hour for Dayton Seiler, commander USN (Ret.), of Hastings Ranch, candidate for the Pasadena School Board at the election on Tuesday, June 6, will be held Wednesday, May 31 at the home of Mrs. Mac A. (Rosa) Cason, 462 Manzanita.

Mrs. Cason who directed last fall's successful campaign in this area which produced overwhelming victories for Assemblyman Frank Lanterman and Rep. Edgar W. Hiestand, announces that coffee will be served at 10:30 a.m. and Commander Seiler will speak at 11 a.m.

Commander Seiler, father of seven children, is widely known for his determined and resolute all-Americanism and his apt disclosures about Communism.

Breakfast Doin's Are A-Hummin'

Long before some Sierra Madreams have finished their "beauty sleep" on the morning of Saturday, June 3, things will be "a-hummin'" in City Park.

Various members of the Kiwanis Club will be getting things ready for the big community breakfast, an annual event for the past six years.

Under chairmanship of Emile E. Smith, assisted by former President Larry C. Bevington, the menu has been completed. It comprises the time-honored "flap-jacks," ham, juice, coffee and/or milk and Melba toast.

Much of the food was obtained through the courtesy of Mrs. Leila M. Roberts, owner of Roberts Market, from a number of firms who supply that widely-known shopping enter.

These include General Mills, who provided the pancake mix; Brown Brokerage, Vermont Maid syrup; Knudsen Dairy farm, milk and half 'n half; Brown and Masie, tomato juice and Manning's coffee; Cubbison, Melba toast.

TICKETS may be obtained from any member of the Kiwanis Club. Holders of tickets

EMILE SMITH—yep, chef's hat, apron and all, demonstrates to Mrs. Robert (Pat) Fend just how he'll make ready for the yummy cookery at the forthcoming Kiwanis Club's Annual Community Breakfast.

ets not only get their breakfast but may also purchase for 89 cents, silver dollars of an old-time vintage. These special dollars may be exchanged at almost any store in Sierra Madre for merchandise at a substantial discount below the usual selling price if presented within the next three days, beginning with the morning of the breakfast.

These old-time dollars will be available at a table which will serve as a temporary "branch" of the Sierra Madre office of the First Western Bank through the courtesy of Manager Frank Dolph. Henry A. Nelson is club president.

Lanterman, Hiestand Outlook Dim . . .

Sierra Madre In New Districts
Under Democratic Gerrymander

Democratic reapportionment of Assembly and Congressional districts, a plain case of partisan gerrymandering—the scrambling of election areas throughout the state—has the political miscreants guessing.

The alleged "fair and equitable" decennial reapportionment ordained by the Democratic majority at Sacramento, presents crucial problems for Assemblyman Frank Lanterman of La Canada and representing Sierra Madre and environs from the present 48th Assembly district, and for the present 21st Congressional district from which Rep. Edgar W. Hiestand has been the representative.

ASSEMBLYMAN LANTERMAN, under the gerrymander, will no longer represent Sierra Madre, while Rep. Hiestand will continue to do so unless the districts as drawn up by the Democrats are altered. His district, however, is considerably altered and becomes the 24th.

Lanterman, with three other Republicans, is placed in the newly-created 43rd Assembly district, which takes in a small part of La Canada, the Los Feliz area of Los Angeles, the west side of Glendale, Griffith Park, part of Burbank and Hancock Park.

In addition to Lanterman, three other Republican assemblyman now reside in this new district—Assemblymen Howard J. Thilen, Chet Woolfrum and Joseph C. Shell, Republican minority leader at Sacramento.

Sierra Madre, divorced from the 48th, is placed in the 49th Assembly district, along with Monrovia, the foothill areas of Arcadia, parts of Pomona, Claremont and La Verne. The present 49th is represented by Assemblyman Hugh Flourney and he is a resident within the boundaries of the new 49th, whereas Assemblyman Lanterman isn't.

IN THE "CHOPUP" which has been going on ever since the state found it would receive eight new Congressional seats under the 1960 Federal census, Rep. Hiestand is placed in the 47th and 49th Assembly districts instead of the 48th and is switched from the 21st to the 24th Congressional district.

The latter includes Sierra Madre, the area of the Rose Bowl, along the foothills to the Los Angeles County line on the east. It takes in all of Arcadia, Altadena, Pasadena, west half of San Marino, all of Temple City north to Live Oak Ave., Monrovia on a line approximately north of Camino Real; Duarte north of Colorado; all of Sierra Madre; Bradbury;

Mrs. Yunk Better
After Operation

Mrs. Barney (Irene) Yunk is recovering nicely at her home at 179 E. Montecito, Sierra Madre, following surgery at Huntington Memorial Hospital. She is the wife of the realtor, with headquarters at 3816 E. Foothill Blvd., Pasadena.

City Is Lagging
In Its Quota
For Blood Bank

Red Cross workers in Sierra Madre point out that it is only 24 days until June 19, next date for the Blood Bank to visit this city. They also point out that Sierra Madre is way behind its quota in donating this precious fluid which can and does save many lives.

Mrs. Richard H. (Ruth) Barden of 217 W. Orange Grove, chairman of the Blood Bank committee, in appealing for donations, announced the date as Monday, June 19, and the time from 3 to 7 p.m.

Two Church Study
Classes Planned at Congregational

Two classes on Congregationalism will be offered at the Sierra Madre Congregational Church this week. On Thursday evening, at 8 o'clock there will be a class on "The Faith of Congregationalism" and on Sunday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, the subject will be "The Organizational Structure of Congregationalism."

Both classes will be held in the Olive O'Byrne room. Rev. George W. Lindsay, pastor of the church, will be the speaker. The classes are open to all who are interested.

Rites for Mrs. Harrison
Are Conducted Tuesday

Funeral services for Mrs. Joyce Harrison, 56, wife of Herbert J. Harrison, senior vice president of Mutual Savings & Loan Association, Pasadena, and former Sierra Madre councilman, were held Tuesday at Rose Hills Memorial Park in Whittier.

Rev. George W. Lindsay of the Sierra Madre Congregational Church officiated at the services which were held in the Hillside Church followed by private interment. Mrs. Harrison was stricken with a heart attack last Friday afternoon at her home, 624 Ramona Ave., Sierra Madre, and died Saturday afternoon at Huntington Memorial Hospital in Pasadena.

MRS. HARRISON was born in Graham, Tex., and moved to Southern California in 1913. Before her retirement

Dog's Find

Locate Body

A dog belonging to Henry B. Neutzel, of 700 Acacia St., Monday night brought home a bone of what proved to be the tibia of a human body. Mrs. Neutzel notified police.

This led to the discovery Tuesday morning of the body of Miss Frances E. Speyer, 75, retired San Francisco school teacher, who disappeared April 3 after having come to Sierra Madre to visit her friend, Mrs. Dorothy L. Holtman of 400 Foothill Ave.

Police Chief Gordon G. McMillan, Sgt. Robert Heasley and members of the Search and Rescue Team found the body in the brush 60 feet above the road and 87 feet down from the ridge, down which the woman had fallen over a 45-degree slope.

STRANGE TO SAY, this was only about 600 feet directly from the Holtman home.

Nearby was the umbrella which Miss Speyer had carried against the 100 degree temperatures prevailing that day, her purse and hat. There was no evidence of foul play.

Meeting at
Brand Home

Approximately 100 members of the Sierra Madre Branch, Pasadena Chapter, American National Red Cross, gathered in annual meeting Monday night at the beautiful home and gardens of its chairman, Joseph C. Brand, and his wife, at 227 W. Orange Grove.

The speaker, Harold Sexsmith of the Pasadena Chapter, spoke after the dinner served by C. J. Pesek of the Clarendon Delicatessen, emphasizing the necessity of getting more people, especially of the young and old classifications, into the organization.

Dinner was served on tables scattered throughout one section of the gardens while the speaking occurred around the pool, the scene illuminated by old-fashioned torch lights.

MRS. H. RANDOLPH WOOD was chairman of the meeting, with reports being made by heads of various departments. These included reports by Mrs. Richard Law, Mrs. William Walte, Mrs. Richard Barden, Mr. Brand, chairman of the fund drive; Mrs. Emile Smith, Mrs. Harold Pang-

Thieves Center

Police reports indicate a plethora of petty thievery, especially of fire extinguishers.

Fire extinguishers were stolen from the apartments of Mrs. William A. Suttie, 220 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., and the Steiner apartment at 540 W. Sierra Madre Blvd.

Albert S. Myers, 101 Esperanza, reports theft of an electrical testing instrument which later was found nearby after it had been broken and abandoned.

Supervisors Ask
Peace Meeting

City Council has gone on record as upholding the Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team in its differences with Sheriff Pitchess. It also has endorsed the petition now being circulated citing the achievements of the team and the necessity for continuing autonomously.

Sierra Madre and the Foothill areas today had rallied to save the autonomy of the famed 18-man volunteer Search and Rescue Team, with its splendid record of 378 persons saved from certain death or serious injury in the rugged mountain terrain in the past ten years since it was organized by its commander, Lt. Fred La Lone.

"Fired" by Sheriff Peter Pitchess because it refused to accept his proposed naming of their leader to replace Lt. La Lone, and forcing them to wear deputy sheriff patches instead of their own, the way was left open, however, for their restoration to active service officially.

Action by the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors at its Tuesday morning meeting in which Frank G. Bonelli, chairman of the board, and Supervisor Warren M. Dorn of the Pasadena or 5th District, figured prominently, as did City Administrator Lawrence C. Bevington of Sierra Madre, brought results.

COUNTY ADMINISTRATOR Lyndon H. Hollinger, County Counsel Harold Kennedy, Administrator Bevington, Sheriff Pitchess' representative, a representative of the Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team and possibly Chairman Bonelli and Supervisor Dorn, will meet to determine if some amicable agreement can be reached.

The decision followed the appearance of Administrator Bevington, Mrs. Lester R. (Margaret) Anthony, chairman of the Sierra Madre Parks and Recreation Commission, and Mrs. Diane Harkness, wife of Minor Harkness, who trains and directs the two bloodhounds used by the Search and Rescue Team. All urged the utmost consideration for the team, and that it be saved for future use in the mountains.

IT ALSO followed receipt by the supervisors of more than 500 telegrams of protests from throughout the mountain area, action by some of the churches in this district, and circulation of petitions protesting Sheriff Pitchess' action.

"This is too big a problem to leave go unsettled," declared Chairman Bonelli, Supervisor Dorn adding that "there should be a peaceful solution of this tangle in which we should try to strengthen and enlarge the volunteer rescue groups doing such fine work and for which they receive no pay."

No date has been set for the conference and will not be until Sheriff Pitchess returns from a trip to Sacramento. Presumably, it will be some time next week, possibly after Memorial Day.

Sheriff Pitchess' action, taken last week, climaxed his demands. Members of the team, famed through the state and subject for articles in leading magazines, one of which from "Coronet" recently was reprinted in the SIERRA MADRE NEWS, were called on to turn in their badges concluding a five-year association with the official law enforcement agency.

THIS DRUMMING OUT of the Sierra Madre unit from the sheriff's department brought acrimonious comment from members of the Southland's most famous mountain rescue squad.

It is openly charged that Pitchess, who would not be adverse to seeking the Republican nomination for Governor of California, seeks to build up a Los Angeles County political organization for himself through a current reorganization of the sheriff's reserve forces and in which all units are to be staffed by his appointees. In this, Sheriff Pitchess names the leaders of all reserve units who naturally are beholden to him.

"Looks like Sheriff Pitchess wants to pack all the reserve units, including the five rescue teams, with leaders of his own picking and thus make each a political football," said one leading Sierra Madre citizen. "He's going to make more enemies

Purchase a Poppy and Remember Our Veterans

"Buy a Poppy and Remember Our Veterans!"

This is the slogan of members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and American Legion Auxiliaries in conducting the annual Poppy Day sales in Sierra Madre Friday and Saturday preliminary to the Memorial Day observance next Tuesday.

The observance itself at Sierra Madre Cemetery where the graves of 43 veterans will be decorated is in charge of Commr. William G. Annas of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post No. 3208, assisted by the American Legion, civic and other club organizations.

THE POPPY DAYS sales honors the more than 500,000 Americans who died and the nearly 1,000,000 Americans who were wounded in both World Wars and the Korean Conflict.

The Legion Auxiliary members met Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Effie Milton where Auxiliary Poppy Chairman Mrs. Lucile Pickett distributed the 1,300 veteran-made poppies.

Secret Hearing on Money Measures Spiked Through Alert Political Reporter

By Edwin Copes

SACRAMENTO—(CNS)—Another battle against secrecy of information in California's legislative halls has been completed successfully against the desire of certain legislators to keep information from the public.

This involved a sub-committee of the Assembly ways and means committee which on orders of Assemblyman Bert DeLotto, sub-committee chairman, planned a full scale secret hearing on a series of appropriation bills on May 25.

Credit for breaking up the secret meeting, at which millions of dollars of taxpayer money will be considered, both for expenditures and potential expenditures, goes to Harry Farrell, political writer for the San Jose Mercury.

Farrell got wind of the proposed secret meeting as the result of tracing a bill for a $1,250,000 appropriation for a system of small craft refuge harbors along the coast, proposed by one of Santa Clara County's assemblymen, Bruce F. Allen, R-San Jose.

THE PROPOSED secret meeting, according to Assemblyman DeLotto, was authorized by Assemblyman Jesse W. Unruh, chairman of the Assembly ways and means committee, and representative on the floor of Governor Edmund G. Brown, who has long proposed "open-door" government, but who, when it came down to cases on signing a bill putting some teeth in anti-secrecy laws on a local level, vetoed the measure.

Harry Matgolis, Unruh's committee consultant, gave this somewhat peculiar explanation for holding a closed meeting, according to Farrell:

"Most legislators come up here and put in bills for a lot of things they don't expect to get. But we have a couple of cry babies, and as soon as they have to give up one iota of what they want, they scream their bloody heads off!"

So, apparently, the ways and means committee would deprive the public of its right to know because "a couple of cry baby legislators scream their bloody heads off!"

ALL OF WHICH brings up the supposition that perhaps certain of the Democratic contingent wanted to get together and cut up the leftover pie for the Democratic legislators.

However, Ralph M. Brown, speaker of the House, and assemblyman from Modesto, stepped into the battle and settled it rather quickly.

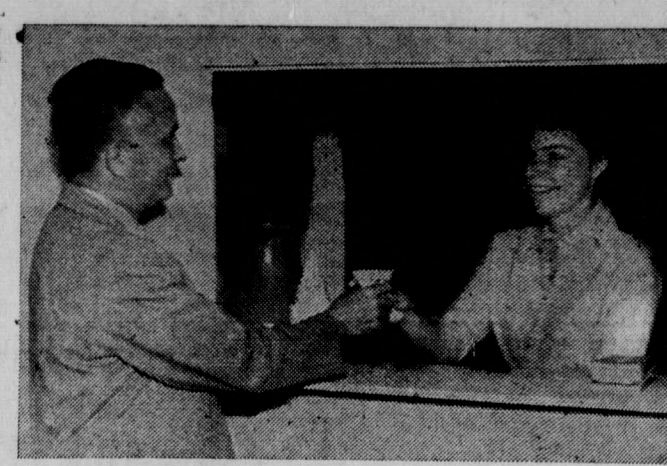

Speaker Brown is the author of scores of freedom of information bills affecting local governments and public records. He is in fact the legislator credited with starting the freedom of information movement in California and he has carried it a long way.

But there are, at yet, no laws that the Legislature must hold open meetings, despite the fact that it has been the custom generally for a long time. And at times some legislators take advantage of the void in the freedom of information laws and requirements for open meetings.

SPEAKER BROWN, however, let it be known the ways and means sub-committee meeting would be open to the public, and so would other committee and sub-committee meetings, as a matter of policy. Unruh and DeLotto agreed after discussing the matter with the speaker.

Thus, once again, an enterprising reporter and political writer has moved the right of the people to know ahead a few notches.

C. A. BARKMEYER, public works superintendent, gets a cooling quencher from Carol L. Pearce, Sierra Vista pool employee at the newly-completed outdoor pool concession stand and patio. This permits removal of concessions from the bath house lobby. Tables will be added to the patio area, accessible directly from the pool area. A counter is provided for customers outside the pool area to buy popcorn, soft drinks and snow cones, thus handling both swimmers and spectators. Incidentally, if you have not received your application for the family season ticket it may be picked up at City Hall or call ELgin 5-7135 and have one sent to you. Pool opens May 27.

Attends Fete for 90th Birthday

Mrs. Beulah Davis of 185 Grove attended the 90th birthday anniversary celebration for Burton Heald of Buena Park held at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charlotte Noble, in Monrovia on May 6.

The other daughters joining in the celebration were Mrs. June Chapen of Indio and Mrs. Gladys Sweeney of Litchfield Peak, Ariz. Some 37 relatives attended the party.

Unit Post Given To Mrs. Pickren

Mrs. Thomas R. (Joyce) Pickren of 245 W. Sierra Madre Blvd. has been chosen ways and means chairman of Foothill District No. 13, Women's Auxiliary to the Los Angeles County Medical Association. Her husband is Dr. Pickren.

The unit will hold its annual meeting and installation today (Thursday) at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Stragnell of 262 W. Lemon, Arcadia.

Alverno's May Crowning Is Scheduled for May 28

In a religious ceremony held on the grounds of the former Barlow Estate, Mary Glascock will crown the Statue of Mary placed at the lower end of the Cypress Gardens on May 28.

Miss Glascock's attendants will be Karen Longpre and Sandra Dorazio. Other members of the court include Greg Glascock, crown bearer, and homeroom presidents, Marilyn Demmel, Catherine McNamara, Kathleen Gibson and Alexandria Rook.

The ceremony will begin with a procession forming at the high school and walking down the east and west sides of the Cypress Garden. The students will recite the Rosary and sing hymns.

After the crowning of the statue, Miss Glascock and her attendants will place their bouquets at the foot of the statue. Benediction will end the ceremony.

SATURDAY is the big day for scores of Sierra Madre children. It is the day of the PTA Cartoon Carnival to be held at the Sierra Madre School playground.

Beginning at 12 noon there will be many booths, all decorated with cartoon figures. Hamburgers will be barbequed by the Sierra Madre Boy Scouts—cotton candy, snow cones, pony rides, a cake walk, and a children's talent show, too.

Then the big event of the day will be the Tom Hatten Show (of Popeye and TV fame). He will conduct a squiggle contest (children know what that means), show cartoons and draw pictures.

There will be three Tom Hatten shows—at 2:30, 3:15 and 4 p.m. Sounds great! Incidentally, any child who wants to may enter the children's talent show. Call Mrs. Moyer at ELgin 5-6013 for a place on the program.

AT LAST T. A. D. and Wynn Fessenden are established in their new home on Orange Grove, on the south side, so they are now Arcadia residents. Sierra Madre's loss.

CHURCH OF THE ASCENSION Parish Day School had its annual Open House last Saturday. Highlight of the afternoon was the play put on by the kindergarten. It is always highly entertaining and this year was no exception.

THE WALLY KARELIUS'S have just returned from a fishing trip to Lake Isabella. The fishing was excellent, they report—good bass. From Lake Isabella they went up the Kern River for trout fishing and were successful. Time for a fish fry.

NEXT THURSDAY, June 1, will be the installation dinner for the new Civic Club officers. To be held at the Derby Restaurant in Arcadia, the dinner promises to be a splendid affair. There will be a theater theme and entertainment will be provided by the Arcadia Community Group who will present a short comedy skit. Dinner is under the chairmanship of Phyllis Chapman.

May Crown Rites Sunday At St. Rita's

May coronation and procession in honor of Our Lord's Blessed Mother, Mary, will be held Sunday, May 28, at 4 p.m. at St. Rita's Church.

The altar of Our Lady will be banked with pink and white gladiolus and carnations. Our Blessed Mother's floral crown will be made from delicate small spring flowers.

May Queen, Julie Schmidt and her attendants—Gerald Sweeney and Francie Cochrane with her court, the 8th grade girls dressed in pastel dresses; the pages, Robert Edwards, Gregory Kay, Ronald Parks, John Morehart, Steven Milly; flower girls, Jean Englert, Jane Hecker, Lita Duran, Micheline Houle, Debra Norman, Antoinette Picard; and crown bearer, Sara Jane Heck, will have the 8th grade boys forming the Guard of Honor in the center aisle.

The second grade Communion class, dressed in First Communion clothes, also will assist the queen.

REMAINDER of the school children, in blue and white uniforms, will march around the church, led by the Girls' Society, dressed in white, singing May hymns in honor of Mary.

The procession is under supervision of the Sisters of St. Rita's. Father Thomas J. O'Malley, pastor, will conduct the ceremony and give a sermon on "Mary, the Mother of God." The ceremony will conclude with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament by Father Walsh.

Even the fellow who stays on the level in this life has to take a great many bumps.

McCormacks Will End Training in Square Dancing

Dr. Donald McCormack, dentist at the Sierra Madre Medical Clinic, and his wife, Eloise, who have been attending square dancing classes at Arcadia, Pasadena and Temple City, will be graduated on May 29, June 1 and June 14, respectively.

Dr. and Mrs. McCormack plan to join one of the many square dancing clubs in the area in the near future.

Memorial Day, as always, will mean different things to different people. To some it's the opportunity for a pre-summer holiday and for traffic officers, it's a headache.

And then, of course, there are some who REMEMBER. They proudly display our country's flag, visit a grave somewhere in fact, or memory.

Each to his own. Certainly, in these busy times we need a day that with family and friends we can seek pleasure. But it behooves all of us to also dwell a long and thoughtful moment on the meaning of Memorial Day and to instruct our children in its meaning—not the morbidity, but the glory of it!

IT'S A POT LUCK dinner tonight for members of the Hastings Ranch Guild of Cystic Fibrosis, at the home of Mrs. William R. Ewing Jr. Highlight will be installation of the new Board of Trustees.

Incoming officers are, President, Mrs. Darrell A. Wright; vice presidents, Mmes. Ralph A. Johnston, Edward A. Rosic, Kenneth C. Holloway Jr.; recording secretary, Mrs. Alan Stearns; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Wells Pleas; treasurer, Mrs. William Sweek.

Board members include Mmes. Warren Milldum, Mathew Slavin III, John W. Norris, William R. Ewing Jr., Don Hays, Richard Esbenshade, Robert L. Farmer and Harold H. Hennacy.

MRS. L. B. MURPHY JR. drove Muriel and Millard Jacobs to the airport and saw them fly off for a two-week tour of the Hawaiian Islands. Should imagine Elise (Mrs. Murphy) might catch the travel fever herself, for it's just two weeks since she bid farewell to her sister, Flo Barnes, and husband who were European bound.

BREAK OUT the muumukus and the beach boy attire! It's a luau at the Hal Johansen's, 3775 Fairmeade Rd. The annual parents' dinner is going Hawaiian, with island music, leis, and please bring your own cushion!

Mrs. Charles Seitz, dinner chairman, and her committee have gone all out for this final event of the year in the way of food, decor and entertainment. So come early prepared for a good time. Punch at 7:30, dinner sharp at 8. Tickets for members available at the HRN School office. Deadline is May 29.

There will be a short business meeting for election of next year's officers; members will be asked to approve three minor changes in the bylaws, but mostly it's just an evening of relaxation, food and fun.

CHILDREN who will attend Don Benito next year will visit one of the kindergarten classes and those pre-schoolers who will attend Field School will visit a class there, both visits being scheduled for May 31 and June 1.

Mrs. Lee Carmichael, school director, reports there will be no summer school this year. Anyone intending to enroll a child at HRNS for the fall semester should contact the school immediately, for most classes are already filled.

PICNIC TIME for the Nursery School will be the last day of school, Thursday, June 15. We will leave school at 10:30 a.m. and go to Del Mar Park (south on Rosemead to Del Mar, then west to the park, three or four blocks which is on the south side of the street just west of the Pasadena Girl's Club).

We will have lunch about 11:30 and the graduation ceremonies at noon. The exercises will be brief and take only a few minutes for each graduate to receive his diploma.

FINAL SAN GABRIEL Valley Council Coop Meet is at Oneonta Nursery School at 8 p.m. Wednesday, May 31. Program will feature those "seasoned" parents and completed parent projects as practiced at Altadena Nursery School the past two years.

WINNERS IN EACH of five play groups for the year are as follows: Tony and Mary Wilkinson, Bill and Marj Benke, Jim and Peggy Carl and Hal and Margery Johansen. One group has not yet reported.

Chairman Joan Linden reports final playoffs are in progress. Grand winning couple will be crowned at a series of final parties June 9 and 10.

BUD AND LOTTIE MARRS went to Ensenada for five days, arriving for the tail-end of the yacht race and the post-race celebrations. We are sorry to learn that when school is out, the Marrs will move to Costa Mesa, to be nearer Bud's work which is selling boats. Meanwhile, they are looking for some nice occupants to rent their Denair St. home. Candy will graduate from Don Benito next month, and Ginger from kindergarten.

UPPER HASTINGS HOME and Garden Club announces a tour of Ranch homes to be conducted by the Boy Scouts, on June 10 and 11. It has been two years since the last tour, and many more homes have been remodeled and landscaped.

The purpose of the tour is two-fold. (1) To inspire homeowners to improve their homes and stay in our community. (2) Benefit the Scouts, probably toward the purchase of additional camping equipment.

Members of Scout Troop 383 and Explorer Post 383 will be happy to sell you a ticket in return for a $1 donation. Suggest you mark your calendar now, and plan to enjoy the tour. For further information, contact Chuck Beers, EL 5-1879, or Bill Heller, EL 5-2964.

LAS COMPANERAS members of Upper Hastings Ranch will have their last formal meeting of the year June 7 at the Chef's Inn in Pasadena. The group will meet for cocktails and luncheon, to be followed by installation ceremonies for the new officers and members of the board.

Mrs. Cecil N. Rowley will be installed as president; other officers are Mmes. James Wentz and Raymond Driemeyer, vice presidents; Mrs. Alan Stearns, secretary, and Mrs. Allen H. Pulsifer, and Mrs. Allen H. Pulsifer, treasurer. New board members are Mmes. Robert B. McKnight, Robert E. Stanaway, Eugene Rode, James Gittinger, and Robert L. Hunt. Mrs. Jack Anderson, outgoing president, will conduct the ceremonies.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Ernest Wenberg will introduce Grant Butler, who will speak on the "Arab World in Focus."

ALWAYS SWEET and sentimental, the Shakespeare Club Juniors Mother and Daughter Banquet and installations was especially poignant as Bet Rogers relinquished the gavel to Joanne Williams. Best of friends, Bet had sponsored Joanne's membership in the club when they were neighbors up on Old Grove Rd.

This year's banquet had an Oriental theme with gilded miniature pagodas and moon gates decking the tables, and the stage was transformed into an Oriental temple.

Joy Berger introduced the new members who had completed their provisional year. From the Ranch, they include Margaret Stivers, Joan Strople, Diane Thornton and Betty Wyatt.

DIANA CLARK, president of Kappa Delta sorority at the University of Southern California, has been tapped for Amazons, the junior and senior women's honorary service organizations. Amazons, the official hostesses of SC, is composed of coeds who have demonstrated outstanding service and leadership in the university.

Diana, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Clark of 1150 Pine Bluff Dr., Pasadena, has served as secretary and scholarship chairman of Theta Sigma chapter of Kappa Delta. She has received recognition for her high scholastic standing, including three Kappa Delta scholarship awards and a University of Southern California Alumni Scholarship.

Miss Clark is also active in YWCA at SC, where she is a cabinet member and co-editor of the Y Newsletter. Diana is a junior, majoring in English.

Special Events to Mark All-Arabian Horse Show

Each day of the All-Arabian Horse Show, to be held this Saturday and Sunday at Santa Anita Race Track, will have its special event, according to Mrs. William Lloyd, president of the Sierra Guild to the Children's Hospital.

The Sierra, Monrovia and San Gabriel Guilds have combined their efforts to present this unique form of family entertainment.

William Ainley of Highland Oaks, show manager for the Southern California Horse Association, which is presenting the program, reports entries have been received from breeders throughout the Western States and each of the 22 events daily will have full entry.

ON SATURDAY, "Zadir," the famous liberty horse from Calpoly, will perform without bridle or halter, by hand and voice signals only, given from a distance.

Sunday's spectators will see the Historical Parade.

Every famous name from history and the arts, past and present, who knew and loved the Arabian horses, will be represented, from George Washington to Rudolph Valentino.

Mrs. Charles Coffyn is ticket chairman for the Sierra Guild. Mrs. Charles W. Russ, horse show chairman, is being assisted by Mrs. William Lloyd and Mrs. Howard Garrison. These women are from the Santa Anita Oaks and Highlands area.

Tickets are $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for youngsters under 12 years of age, and can be obtained from Guild members or Royal Drug in Sierra Madre.

Singing Bluebirds Visit Sanitarium

The Singing Bluebirds, 4th grade Campfire group from Highland Oaks, visited the Santa Anita Sanitarium in Arcadia, Wednesday, May 3. A program of folk dances was presented for the enjoyment of the 100 patients, and gifts were given to each of them.

Those taking part were Susan Goldfarb, Sandra Pluin, Kathy Rantz, Susan Yoder, Jeanne Henney, Debbie Purmont and Carol Stewart. The group is directed by Mrs. William S. Stewart of Santa Anita Highlands.

It should be a ball Saturday night, when the Ranch Wrens and the Hasty Hens get together for their annual dinner dance. A cocktail party at the Kenneth Kaler's home on Shadow Grove will set the stage for the evening's fun, and then the group will be off for Eaton's for dinner and dancing.

But, arranging the affair are Delores Zinsmeyer, Barbara Hyde, Darlene Whitlock and Jane Kaylor from the Wrens, and Nita David, Louise Day, Lorraine McGovern, and June Shepherd of the Hens.

Shakespeare Juniors Plan Dinner Dance

The first Saturday night in June is always a significant one for the Shakespeare Club Juniors as it is the night of their annual dinner dance at the Oakmont Country Club in Oakland.

Bob Clark and his orchestra will provide the music. A social hour will be held at 7:30 o'clock and dinner will be served at 8:30.

Mrs. J. Jerry Hendrickson is chairman of the dance and is being assisted by Mrs. Charles W. McCurdy, and both are taking reservations.

TABLES RIMMING the dance floor will be set for groups of 12 and 14 and will be made festive with arrangements of white carnations in shocking pink compotes.

Mrs. Louis E. Rodwill and Mrs. Bradford Boyd are co-chairmen of the decorations and are being assisted by Mmes. William Haeflinger, Walter Dedrick Jr. and Jean Reitzell.

Several parties prior to the dance will be held. Among the hosts and hostesses will be Messrs. and Mmes. Sam Soghomonian, Paul C. Byrne Jr., and Walter Dedrick Jr.

Among those who have made early reservations for the dance are Messrs. and Mmes. William Hannaford, Elmore G. Brolin, Stuart N. Cyphard, Alfred S. Wach, Robert Spanjian, Clifford V. Stadler, James T. Coleman, Daniel H. Rogers, George F. Berger, Franklin A. Williams, Bruce MacFarlane, Donald J. Bent, Wesley E. Anderson, James W. Potter and Peter D. Tilton, all of the Hastings Ranch area.

Les Trente Amies

Discusses Books

Les Trente Amies held its monthly meeting Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Douglas Maure, 3048 Clarmey Lane,

VILLA VIEWS

Toni Maurin writes
from Germany:

As Memorial Day approaches I realize more and more how precious our unbombarded and beautiful land should be to all that dwell within its borders.

America has no craters in its earth to mark the tomb of some forgotten fighter, no piles of brick to show where once proudly stood a home of people like you and me, and no extermination camps to remind us how cheaply a life is spent.

We don't have these things now, but we could in a matter of hours. We can no longer sit smug in our rocking chairs with thoughts that we are too far away to ever be attacked.

We can be and are being attacked from within right now and if ever an overt military action is directed against our land it would come before we could fire a shot. Complacency must be a thing of the past if we are going to justify the loss of those who laid down their lives to keep us free!

Editor's note: Joyce Wenger will fill in the balance of Toni Maurin's column until her return from Europe.

MRS. HAROLD BERG new comer on the Hill, was the guest of honor at a delightful coffee Monday morning given by Mrs. Joseph Mangun and Mrs. Howard Owen. Guests not only met Mrs. Berg, but many viewed the Owens' new Villa Mesa home for the first time. In fact, I was so busy studying the unusual and charming home, I hope I didn't overlook meeting a guest or reporting it.

Those present included Mmes. Jack Paschall, Alkan Armstrong, John Chapman, Kenneth Fuller, Edwin Pyle, Joseph Philipson, Ira Lackey, George Holmes, Charles Heneveld, Edward Halperin, Norman White, James Smart, James Smith and John Nyberg.

Also Mmes. Sidney Parker, Ralph Gleim, Robert Mueller, Charles Goldsworthy, W. Anderson, Cleto Dorsey, W. H. Dunning, Floyd Pasader.

The program was "Cavalade of Books," presented by Mrs. Georgianna Hardy. Assisting the hostess with refreshments were Mmes. George Juett and I. C. Wills.

Babe Ruth Play Opens On Saturday

The Sierra Madre Babe Ruth League will open its season Saturday, May 27, at 1:30 p.m. at Sierra Mesa School Field, when the Cardinals, managed by Henry Nuetzel and Ray Schakeford, will meet the Giants, managed by Rev. Ray E. Hansen, D. Mueller and P. Kennedy.

At 4 p.m. the Senators, managed by M. Larson, R. Schmidt, C. Larson and R. Sain, will meet the White Sox, managed by M. Meredith and Bill Hillard.

On Sunday, May 28 Senators will play the Giants at 1:30 p.m., and the Cardinals play the White Sox.

Bert Menne, president of Sierra Madre Baseball Association, will be on hand with other officials of the Association as the season begins for these Little Leaguers who have graduated into the Babe Ruth League.

The public is invited and encouraged to attend this important civic and sports event in the interest of our boys in Sierra Madre.

LITTLE LEAGUE

THE YANKEES and Orioles continue to battle for first place as they enter their fourth week of games at Heasley Field. Here are last week's results:

May 15 — Monday, Red Sox 5 — Dodgers 5; May 16 — Tuesday, Orioles 9 — Yankees 3; May 17 — Wednesday, Indians 6 — Braves 6; May 18 — Thursday, Dodgers 4 — Orioles 4; May 19 — Friday, Red Sox 7 — Braves 4; May 20 — Saturday, Yankees 17 — Indians 0.

The Minor League Seals and Stars play today (Thursday) at Sierra Madre School and have games scheduled for all day Saturday afternoon at Heasley Field.

Colored Money

Been soaking my fives, tens and twenties in different colored cake dyes just to see how well Mrs. Smith's Treasury idea of colored money would turn out. I used pink on the fives, bright yellow on the tens, and lavender on the twenties. After a week of experimenting, by George—I'm against Mrs. Smith's colored money scheme—it's too easy for the wife to inventory my pocketbook without even having to count the money.

Hansen Will Talk About Nicodemus

"The Man Who Came by Night" will be the sermon of Rev. Ray E. Hansen at Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran Church, 33 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., Sierra Madre, at 10:10 a.m. Sunday.

"Trinity Sunday is a good time to look at the mystery of the Three Persons of God—Father, Son and Spirit," the pastor will say. "Through eyes of faith we see this God as the Father with eternal love for all people. Nicodemus, who came to Christ by night with questions, is an eternal example of all who seek to know more about God."

"THE GREAT TRUTH in the story of Nicodemus is that it is fatally easy to think of Christianity as something to be discussed, and not as something to be experienced. At the heart of Christianity is a mystery that cannot be intellectually grasped, but must be experienced. Then comes understanding."

Sunday School for all ages, including the adult Bible discussion group, is at 9 a.m.

Bethany's Mission Month Ends

The Bethany Month of Missions will hold its concluding sessions this Sunday at both the 11 and 7 o'clock services. At the Sunday morning hour Rev. Philip Grossman of the Wycliffe Translators will be the speaker. Mr. Grossman is secretary of the organization and has served extensively in their widespread missionary work. In the evening Rev. Dewey Mulholland from Brazil, one of Bethany's own missionary families, will again speak.

At that time the last of the faith promise envelopes will be collected. It is anticipated that the previous missions budget of $25,000 will be exceeded for 1961-62. DR. SCHAPER will be in Kansas City, Mo., this Friday night to speak at the retirement banquet in honor of his former pastor, Dr. Walter L. Wilson.

Dr. Wilson has been pastor of the Central Bible Church of Kansas City for 40 years and it was during his pastorate that Dr. Schaper began his preparation for the ministry. More than 500 guests will attend.

Rabbi Samson to Conduct Services

The regular Friday evening Shabbat services will be held at Temple Beth David on May 26 at 8:30 o'clock. Guest Rabbi Samson Levy will conduct the services.

The Temple Choir with Mrs. Charles Lich of 710 Encino Dr., Arcadia, at the organ, will participate in the services.

Bethany's New Education Building to Start Soon

Plans for the new Education Building for Bethany Church, N. Baldwin and W. Montecito, which it is estimated will cost between $50,000 and $60,000, have been submitted to the contractor.

Exact cost figure is expected shortly and work on the two-story building adjacent to the church will start thereafter. It will be a 65,000-square foot structure.

Rev. Robert N. Schaper, minister, announces that already $34,000 has been subscribed for the Education Building, of which $20,000 already has been paid.

The Education Building is part of a ten-year improvement plan for extension of Bethany's church plant.

Sisters of Motherhouse, Novitiate Extend Thanks

Since Jan. 12, 1942, when we first moved our Motherhouse and Novitiate into Sierra Madre, the Franciscan Sisters have experienced many kindnesses from the residents of this city. So, as we anticipate our moving north to Redwood City, we want to express our appreciation to you, our known and unknown friends here in Sierra Madre.

Thank you for your friendliness and for the many courtesies you have extended to us. Thank you for your support—moral and material—in our needs. Thank you for your understanding of the nature of our quiet work: preparing young women for a life of complete dedication to God and to their fellowmen. We will continue to remember you in our daily prayers as we ask God to be mindful of your spiritual as well as material needs.

—Mother M. Marcara, O.S.F., Provincial Superior, and all the Sisters of the Mount Alverno Motherhouse and Novitiate.

Holy Trinity Festival at Faith Church Honors for Father Smith, Sister Noel

The last festival of the Christian Church year, the Festival of the Holy Trinity, will be observed in the 10:30 o'clock Sunday morning worship service of Faith Lutheran Church, 835 Hastings Ranch Dr.

For the festival sermon, Rev. Armin Hesse has chosen the theme "The Unknown God Revealed." This pastoral message will concern the Scriptural account of the Apostle Paul's discourse with the Athenians on Mars' Hill. Its purpose will be to show that the true God can and should be known by everyone.

The staff organizational meeting for the Children's Vacation Church School, to be conducted from June 19 to 30, will be held on Wednesday evening, May 31, at 7:30 o'clock. In this meeting, teacher-training facts will be presented, classes will be arranged, and teachers guides and materials for the various departments will be distributed.

BEFORE the church altar last Sunday, 23 new members were added to the membership of Faith Lutheran Congregation, four by adult and two by child-baptism, three by adult confirmation, and 14 by transfer of membership.

They were Fred Auwinger of Sierra Madre; Misses Jerriann and Joanne Barany of Arcadia; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barkman and daughter, Rebecca, of Pasadena; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burke and sons, Rodney, Robert and Glenn, of Arcadia; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Husman of San Gabriel; Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Robinson of Sierra Madre; Mr. and Mrs. George Williams and children, Laurel and Kevin, of Duarte.

Dr. Barnhart Will Talk on Eternal Life

"You Will Live Forever" the Memorial Day sermon topic of Dr. Ethel Barnhart, minister of the Santa Ana Church of Religious Science, 226 W. Colorado Blvd., Arcadia, Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock service.

One of the basic tenets of Religious Science is, "We believe in the eternity, the immortality, and the continuity of the individual soul, forever and ever expanding." This will be the basis of Dr. Barnhart's sermon. Child care is provided.

JUNIOR CHURCH from pre-school through junior high school, directed by Lee and Evelyn Kingsbury, meets at 11 a.m. The High School Youth meet at 7:30 p.m., with Suzanne Huntzinger as their leader. The college group (17 through 21) meets at the same hour under the leadership of Norman Briggs.

The regular Wednesday morning healing meeting held at 10:30 o'clock, is conducted by Rev. Rosalie Feller. Part of this hour is voted to prayer for special requests. These meetings are open to the public.

The power of prayer is demonstrated daily to hundreds of listeners to the Dial For Prayer. Just call HI, 7-6162, day or night.

Allowed Visitors
Three Sierra Madreans—LeRoy Davis, Harry Lange and Tom Polgren—are now allowed to have visitors at St. Luke Hospital where they have been undergoing treatment.

SPRING FESTIVITIES at Sierra Madre School included two dance and rhythm programs, one presented by the primary and the second by the middle grades. In addition, Mother's Day parties were given for all kindergarten mothers by pupils in Mrs. Heasley's and Mrs. Pascoe's classes, cooperating with the PTA Room Mothers. Here we see the youngsters in a May Pole dance.

Three Stakes At Hollywood

Hollywood Park will celebrate a long holiday weekend with a series of three stakes features on successive racing days that will bring out many of the top thoroughbreds now racing in America.

Biggest racing weekend of the current 55-day meeting at the Inglewood track will headline the $100,000 added California for the older stakes stars on Saturday, the $20,000 added Honymoon Stakes for an excellent crop of three-year-old fillies on Monday and the $25,000 added Will Rogers Stakes for three-year-old colts and geldings on Tuesday, Memorial Day.

The Californian on Saturday, first of four 100 granders to be run at Hollywood Park this season, is at a mile and a sixteenth and will bring out such turf champions as Prove It, the Rex Ellsworth colt who was the sensation of the Santa Anita meeting with victories in two 100 granders, the Maturity and Handicap, and T. V. Lark, winner of five $100,000 races in his brilliant career.

LIQUOR FEES TO CITY

Talent Show Will Feature Dance, Music

A talent show, "Stars for a Night," will be held at the Foothill Jewish Community Center in Sierra Madre Saturday, May 27, at 8 p.m. The theme will be American music and dancing from the Gay 90's to the present time.

The talent will run the gamut from professional to semi-professional and amateur. Featured in the show will be selections by the San Gabriel Light Opera Company directed by Mr. Thompson; the teenage concert pianist, Stewart Horantz; Tiny Molter's orchestra; clarinetist Arnold Hoffman, and vocalist Ruth Roth singing an original composition.

THE BARBERSHOP Quartet of the Men's Club also will sing, and Cantor Salomon Edelman will give several operatic arias. Dancers, comedians and pantomimists will complete the entertainment.

Director of "Stars for a Night" is Mrs. Sam Parker, assisted by Mrs. Michael Chosen, and the production is under the auspices of the Women's Division. The show is open to the public, and parents are urged to bring their children.

Vons Will Pay 15-Cent Dividend

T. A. Von Der Ahe, president of Vons's Grocery Co., Los Angeles supermarket chain, announces that the Board of Directors has declared a regular quarterly dividend of 15 cents a share on the common stock. Dividend is payable June 15 to stockholders of record as of May 26.

On Feb. 13, 1961, the Board of Directors increased the quarterly dividend from ten cents to 15 cents because of a rise in company earnings.

Von Der Ahe stated that the Board of Directors will consider an extra supplemental dividend of either cash or stock at the end of this fiscal year, subject to conditions then existing.

HUBCAPS THIEVES BUSY

Mother and Daughter Tea At Alverno Noteworthy

Tea for two—Mother and Daughter—was the theme for the social gathering at Alverno Heights Academy on Saturday from 3 to 5 p.m.

The tea took place in the Villa Del Sol d'Oro, a part of the old Barlow estate, being by Marie Antoinette. Faculty and student body president and vice president formed a reception line in the rotunda to welcome those attending.

After brief introductions, the girls accompanied their mothers into the dining room, where Mrs. Erwin Drabinski did the honors at the tea table.

Chairs were set up on the lawn and patios supplying a view of the Sierra Madre Mountains and the beautiful surroundings, which were a perfect setting for the catering by Marie Antoinette. THE TEA was a wonderful occasion for the mothers and daughters to get acquainted and also enjoy a tour of the spacious grounds and lovely Villa.

The women behind the scenes were the room mothers, Mrs. T. H. Dyksee, Mrs. Gifford Glasscock, Mrs. Bernard Steinbacher and Mrs. Alvin Mooney. Also Alverno Parents' Association vice president, Mrs. Robert A. Hax. Together they worked and planned to make an enjoyable social.

Council Meeting

THE W. BONITA ST. situation in which Council granted Louis Sandor permission to operate a one-man factory, in property owned by Mayor W. Webster Vannier at 131 W. Bonita, was referred back to the Planning Commission for further interpretation as to the words "artisan" contained in the code.

Mayor Vannier absented himself from the chair during the deliberations on this question. Atty. Lachlan Foster, of 678 Manzanita, appeared for a group of citizens opposing the permission granted at the previous Council meeting. Prescott Builders, Pasadena subdividers, sent word it would apply for new subdivision rights to the much-mooted Toyon Rd. tract. This time it will heed provisions of the Hillside Zoning ordinance.

Rescue Team

Continued from page 1. than votes in this part of the county, you can rest assured. The San Dimas team has already been reorganized along the sheriff's orders and the Altadena unit likewise may be absorbed.

AT A MEETING FRIDAY at the sheriff's offices in Los Angeles, with Under-sheriff Hal Marlow, the Sierra Madre team, which recently effected its 378th rescue in the San Gabriel Mountains, unanimously refused to change the SMSRT patches for the standard sheriff's insignia or permit the sheriff to name its leader.

Incidentally, it is the only group in the county which works with bloodhounds in rescue work. Marlow's answer was, according to the Sierra Madre man, "You are officially notified that you are no longer connected with the sheriff's department."

LT. LA LONE, who has been engaged in mountain rescue work for 28 years; Bill Wark, a leading member, and the others announced that they will continue to answer calls for rescue in the mountains, even though they will be deprived of assistance from the sheriff's helicopter. Incidentally, the team has never received financial support from the sheriff's department.

Support for the Rescue Team's stand came from Sim Jarvi, supervisor of the Angeles National Forest; Bob Gardner of the Altadena Mountaineers, and Ed Corpe, district ranger of the Arroyo Seco District of the Angeles National Forest.

Demo Gerrymander

In the new 59th Assembly district it may be necessary for Messrs. Lanterman, Shell, Thilin and Wolfum to get together and determine which of the four will be the Republican candidate from the district. With Shell anxious to return to the Assembly, though he may become a candidate for Governor, the outlook for Assemblyman Lanterman appears exceedingly dim.

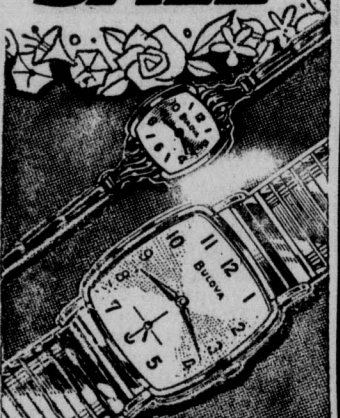

Red Cross Meeting

In addition to Mrs. Wood and Mr. Brand, the Sierra Madre branch staff includes Mrs. William Schwartz, vice chairman; Mrs. Paul Burton, vice chairman; Mrs. Rex Smith, secretary, and Mrs. S. E. Peterson, treasurer.

A slate of 16 persons nominated as directors will be acted on at the June meeting.

An All-American Trio Deserves Your Vote

This newspaper believes that this end of the Pasadena School District should be well represented by at least one member on the Pasadena District School Board.

It believes that the best interests of Sierra Madre, Hastings Ranch, the Oaks and Highland area and the Rosemead-Foothill district can be so served by Comdr. Dayton Seiler, United States Navy (Ret.), a Hastings Ranch resident, the father of seven children, and a dedicated American.

These are times when a firm, resolute Americanism is or should be a factor in any governmental post, be it national, state, county or city.

VOTERS SHOULD make this a first requisite for their approval of any candidate for any governmental post, and this is particularly true of our Boards of Education, for the latter, in recent years, have been the targets for charges that some of them are honeycombed with Reds, Pinkos and fellow-travelers.

This stigma has not always been warranted; in other instances it has been warranted, and here "preventive medicine" is best.

Members of the Pasadena Board should be entirely free of suspicion of giving aid and comfort, in any instance, to the Communists, Pinkos or fellow-travelers—some of these just misguided citizens who through their illy-conceived idealisms have brought suspicion to certain phases of our school curricula and methods of teaching.

THE BEST TEST of Comdr. Seiler's fitness and ability for a post on the Pasadena District Board of Education, aside from his naval service and scientific ability, is that the Pinkos and their fellow-travelers in Sierra Madre and elsewhere have made him their target, and in this evidencing a pre-concerted agreement to get his scalp. This could be Communist-inspired.

Comdr. Seiler, with a long record of loyalty to his country, who believes in a strong program of positive education in the great moral and spiritual values upon which our country was founded, should receive every loyal voter's support.

So should Mrs. LuVerne LaMotte and Steve Salisman, incumbents.

Together, these three constitute an all-American trio for an all-American education.

Memorial Day - Honesty

In these hours of decision, at this Memorial Day season, there comes back to us memories of other troubled years, of stirring martial, ever-crescendoing days when America, the clouds of secession darkening the overhead, marched forth in battle array in '61, when they died from rifle bullets and gruesome, grievous wounds—when they suffered sorrow and loss, pain and death for the causes they believed right and just.

For the principles in which they believed enough to fight for. For they were of a breed who backed their words with action—in this and in those beliefs they were honest men and honest women.

Again, in this time when Communism's threats of wars and its insidious treasuries at home is a way of life, when the cause of freedom has become worldwide, when there is a deeply profound and poignant and uppermost question whether "this American nation, under God," can survive, there is much for us to be concerned about—so much to ponder and wonder about.

PARAMOUNT is the moot question that if Americans do not right about face and become honest and above board in our thinking and doing, unless we learn to discipline ourselves, unless we once again adopt religion and patriotism, unless we do this and mean it—not "smokescreen" about it—stop our giving it mere "lip service," the days of the American Republic, grandest dream of government ever conceived, are numbered.

These are not just idle words; they symbolize the most acute, inward-reaching crisis our land, once the spearhead of freedom the world over, but now the acme of license and licentiousness, has faced since the close of the Civil War and assassination of Abraham Lincoln.

For there has come into our land, the last great bastion of freedom to which the freedom-hungry peoples of the embattled world still look, but with a diminishing degree of hope, a vast, dangerous and cancerous dishonesty—a mean, shallow doctrine of dishonesty which is eating its way, more progressively and more rapidly than we think, into the vitals of America.

THE CHINESE have a word for it—"cumsha," elsewhere in the Orient it is known as "The Squeeze," and in blunt English it means "graft and bribery"—"Till get mine and to hell with you, brother," and to recall the days of the French kings, "After me the deluge." In short, a small word ever mounting in our national consciousness but about which we do little—"dishonesty."

We have become a dishonest people; we are training our children to be dishonest, careless, lawless—an indiscriminate mass of headlong, headstrong youth, who flaunt the law, speed to death and destruction in motley cars, their parents foolishly and indulgently provide for them, a youth harassing the policemen who attempt to keep them in line, a youth taking the easiest classes in school so that they may have more time for lawless leisure.

IN MANY WAYS, dishonest ways, we have undermined our freedom. Through the connivance, intentional and unintentional, of the Pinkos and their fellow-travelers, of educators who should know better, and who should train our youth in patriotism and freedom, not Communism's Godlessness, we have weakened the fabric of this nation and our people to the point where it is possible the Commies are right in their contention that come about 1973 they can topple the American Government and make the United States another Red Communist satellite.

Let that sink into your consciousness, Mr. and Mr. America, then do something about it. Or do you care as long as you get "yours"?

What would that mean to you?

IT WOULD mean death—the firing squad, a la Castro; imprisonment, a la Budapest, its streets running with the blood of honest patriots; torture, a la Siberia; seizure of your land and homes, a la the Kulaks—for the "intellect-

An American Creed...

Believe in the unlimited Power of God and I believe that we, as members of the human race, have full access to that power.

Believe in the destiny of America as the hope of Freedom for all Mankind.

Believe in the Sanctity of the Individual.

Believe that my own courage is no less than that of the Founding Fathers of this Republic who, in signing the Declaration of Independence, pledged their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor.

Believe that it is my duty as an American, to work, to fight and to pray for the preservation of American ideals of Freedom to the end that those privileges I enjoy because of the efforts of those who have gone before me, may be passed on, unblemished, to those who come after me.

Believe that it is my duty, as an American, to see to it that American Youth be well informed of American History in all its phases dating back to the settling of America by the early colonists, and I believe that it is my duty to see to it that American Youth be given, in home and school, an abiding appreciation of those moral / spiritual values which have made America great.

Believe it to be my duty, as an American, to see to it that those who are elected or appointed to positions of public trust and responsibility, conduct themselves in all their dealings in a moral, spiritual and ethical manner. Should I be asked to serve in such a capacity, I pledge to conduct myself likewise.

Pledge myself, as an American, to raise my voice in support of these beliefs in all my individual and group associations, and to work with and cooperate with other Americans of like belief regardless of race, color or religion.

COMMEMORATING the approaching Memorial Day season and all that it implies, the SIERRA MADRE NEWS this week is privileged to reprint "An American Creed" which originated in this community ten years ago and which was printed in newspapers and magazines throughout the country.

It also was printed in the Congressional Record and was awarded the Freedoms Foundation Medal at Valley Forge in 1951.

Its author is Col. Walter D. Thurber, a Sierra Madre resident for 20 years and an honorary member of the Kiwanis Club of this city.

The 1961 edition of "The Creed," beautifully printed in three colors—red, white and blue—is being published by the Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club which announces that it has been made a prime factor in this year's program for Kiwanis Division 15 which includes 20 clubs in this area, according to Robert A. Olin, division lieutenant governor.

Copies suitable for framing may be obtained from Henry A. Nelson, president of the Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club. Single copies are 50 cents each, with substantially lower prices for copies purchased in groups.

OUT OF THE COBWEBS

52 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, May 21, 1909—The Monday Musical Club met on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Laurel Stevenson of Laurel Ave. An excellent program of vocal and instrumental music was rendered under the direction of Mrs. I. N. Ward. One of the attractive features was a two-step composed by Mrs. L. E. Lyon and played by Mrs. W. E. Rhea.

The annual meeting of the Woman's Club Building Association was held last Friday evening at the Latteau home. Directors elected for the ensuing year were Mrs. Mmes. Latteau, L. W. Less, Camp Jones, Yexxa, Torrance and Andrews. Following the meeting of the stockholders the board of directors met and elected Mrs. George Latteau, president; Mrs. C. W. Jones, vice president; Mrs. W. S. Andrews secretary, and Mrs. F. R. Yexxa, treasurer. Contractor Gilbert has promised the ladies that they can have their housewarming in the new clubhouse the last of June.

20 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, May 15, 1941—Carl H. Lundberg of Altadena is the new owner of the property at 132 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., formerly belonging to Mrs. Agnes Leighton. Lundberg was high bidder at the auction held last Wednesday afternoon. He bought the five-room house and lot as an investment, paying $4,750.

Sierra Madre's unit of the California State Guard, now being organized by Col. Walter Thurber of the Third Component Regiment, went through its first military drill last night at the City Pumping Grounds on E. Sierra Madre Blvd. Sierra Madre men who already have volunteered are Otto Bailey, Charles Brown, Harry Caskey, H. S. Embree, John L. Fitzgerald, Harry E. Gabriel, Thomas Miller Jr., Henry Olsen, Alfred Thurston, Milton Webber, Lloyd P. Welch and Art Embree.

11 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, May 13, 1950—A call was issued this week for additional entries in the gigantic 1950 Pioneers Day Parade scheduled for Saturday, June 10. "We particularly need more musical units," said Sterling T. Ripple, parade chairman.

Sierra Madre voters will go to the polls tomorrow to fill one vacancy on the City School Board of Trustees. There are three candidates for the one vacant seat: Howell N. White Jr., incumbent and salesman; Herbert E. Haymaker, sales engineer, and Henry B. Neutzel, commercial airlines pilot and former city councilman.

6 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, May 19, 1955—The new Public Library, under construction since last November, and dreamed about for many years before that, has become a reality to be dedicated Sunday afternoon in ceremonies shared by Mayor Charles H. James, members of the Library Board headed by W. Webster Vannier; the Veterans of Foreign Wars Artist Elmer Weese, Librarian Lulu Moore and her staff, the Friends of the Library, and all the townsfolk who wish to attend.

Early in June, Sierra Madre's business section will be augmented by an ultra-modern music store. Carl R. Engel, Spartan TV representative, is completely remodeling the store at 43 N. Baldwin, recently vacated by Rasmussen.

'Song Of Siberia'

FOREWORD: We herewith present the closing chapters of "Song of Siberia," a terse, graphic serial reciting the adventures of David, a young Hungarian, Radnak and other compatriots who participated in the Budapest revolt and who paid the price for their patriotism and courage in the face of the Russian Communists and overlords. Figuring prominent is the "Song of Siberia," composed by young David before his death while en route to Siberia and exile. The story is the work of Den and Martha Murray, Sierra Madre residents, the former a widely-known Hollywood script writer.

By Den and Martha Murray

Ivan Stolypin was one of a quarter million Russian secret agents sworn in to enforce the Kremlin's edict against "anyone suspected of singing, uttering, or in any way associating himself with, or trafficking in, the so-called 'Song of Siberia'."

For Ivan it was proving a good job—so far. Pay was excellent. A man got to travel a bit and see things. For instance, Ivan was stationed here in Budapest, Hungary. It being the theory of the minister of internal security that none of his agents should be stationed where perhaps his racial ties or private grudges would influence his impartial enforcement of the law.

CHAPTER 69

Ivan agreed with this view of it. After all, he and his fellow agents were packing a mighty burdensome load of responsibility. They were, in fact, being called upon to act as policeman, prosecutor, judge and executioner all in one. If they witnessed a violation—or what they suspected was a violation—it was their sworn duty to kill the violator or suspected violator on the spot. Nothing less—nothing more. And their regional superior would back them up, even when it was subsequently discovered that the dead person had been in fact innocent. Yes, it was some job. And tonight, as Ivan Stolypin patrolled his district in the workers' section of Budapest, he hoped it would last. Of course, he hadn't had to kill anybody yet. The West had stopped sending over their balloons and containers with the little rice papers and tobacco. Their radio stations weren't even broadcasting "The Song" anymore.

Ivan guessed the West was afraid they would get somebody shot with these former activities. And he told himself grimly that they certainly would if he caught anybody on his beat listening to the song or trafficking in it.

Ivan was meandering along thinking with pitying contempt of two of his colleagues. Fools had been fired from their jobs and imprisoned for failing to carry out their duties against a group of hopelessly contaminated school boys.

They had caught the young criminals writing the words of "The Song" on classroom blackboards with invisible ink that reacted to moisture. When the blackboards were sponged off, the words leapt out at you.

Ivan knew what he would have done in such circumstances. Yes, sir! Wasn't his hand right now stealing unconsciously to his gun butt as he even thought of it?

CHAPTER 70

An electrifying sound arrested him. He listened tautly—traced it up ahead to a ground floor apartment where a faint glow of light from the front window was making a yellow square on the paved court. He began his stalk. There could be no doubt that here was an out and out violation! He didn't know Hungarian, but under the other things drilled into him had been the melody and words of that song. And here it was!

Tiptoeing up the stoop he tried the door. It was unlocked. Silently he twisted the knob and catfooted inside, gun at the ready. And then he came to a staring stop.

In a corner of the small room that obviously served all domestic needs, under a shaded lamp, a young mother was seated in a rocking chair crooning her infant son to sleep with the strains of "The Song."

Ivan recovered himself and hurled at her the appropriate Hungarian word they had taught him: "Stop!"

The girl—all of 16—didn't even look in his direction as she continued to sing in a low, steady alto.

Ivan scowled—raised his gun. Thrust it out in approved training corps fashion. He couldn't miss. He was close enough to smell the fresh laundered diapers folded over the crib railing.

He ought to recognize that smell. Didn't he have three at home that once had been at that small? And hadn't Marfa sung all three of them to sleep just that way, clutching them in her arms against the world and defying anyone in it to bring them harm?

'Black Light' Hawser Tie Scout Stunt

As one might expect, there will be a bit of knot tying at the Rose Bowl Scout Circus on June 3, but those programming the big show said the audience will see a demonstration of gigantic knot tying.

A ship's hawser will be the rope to be tied, and through the use of "black light" in the darkened bowl, it will look for all the world as though it is tying itself. Boy Scouts who will actually be doing the work will not show up except as moving shadows during the unique demonstration.

The knot tying demonstration will be one of the many between-acts attractions at the circus, in which 10,000 Boy Scouts, Explorers and Cub Scouts will participate. They are affiliated with the San Gabriel Valley Council, Boy Scouts of America, sponsor of what is billed as the Scouts' own version of "The Greatest Show on Earth."

SOME TEN major acts and events will be presented in the Rose Bowl, starting at 8 o'clock, Saturday night June 3, with emphasis on

Young Israeli PCC Graduate

A young man of 17 from Teta-viv, Israel, Reuben Abed, will be graduated from Pasadena High School in June. An honor student in nuclear physics, in this country on a student visa, he has been making his abode at the Spencer Edwards home, 576 Elm Ave., Sierra Madre, during his stay in this country.

With his high school work completed, he plans to enter an American university for further study.

specular entertainment, as well as a good look at the varied Scouting activities which will be dramatically portrayed on the field.

Besides the unusual rope tying—or hawser tying—under the black light, the "in-between" acts also will include clowns and midgits, chariot races, "squaw wagon" races and original comedy routines.

All the actors will be amateurs, the Scouts themselves, and they are busy now in many troops, Cub packs and Explorer units, preparing costumes, sets and props.

THE SCOUTS also will be busy soon, selling tickets at $1 each for adults 19 and over and two for $1 for children 8 to 18. Those under 8 will be admitted free, and tickets also will be available at the Rose Bowl, it was announced.

Proceeds go to support many Scout activities.

Post Office Building Sold

The building presently occupied by the United States Post Office at 301 W. Sierra Madre Blvd. has been purchased for investment purposes by Thad Brown of 1750 Vista Dr., Arcadia. Price paid exceeds $30,000.

The building, between the Ross Market and Arnold's Hardware store has been the property of Charles Koch of Pasadena, who purchased it a year ago from Canadian interests.

Pangborn Realty handled the transaction for the seller. With breaking of ground for the new Post Office building, it is expected that the present quarters will be available for a new tenant early next fall.

New Setup For C. of C.

The Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce has rented new headquarters at 366 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., according to an announcement by Secretary-Manager Anthony Cavalli.

The move from 66 W. Sierra Madre Blvd. has been made necessary by the need for more room, President John H. Curtis reports.

The Nelissen Accounting Company, which for the past 16 years has shared the C. of C. headquarters, also will move to the new location at 366 W. Sierra Madre Blvd.

'Blithe Spirit' Cast Chosen

Many hours of rehearsal already have been spent on the farce, "Blithe Spirit," by Noel Coward, to be presented by the Sierra Madre Players June 23 and 24 in Sierra Madre School Auditorium.

Cast includes Les Chapman and Jane Buchan from Sierra Madre; Jeanette Hart from Pasadena; Rita Borgquist, Vera Spanos, Florence Ross and Julian Burke from Hastings Ranch. Director is Charles T. Sanders of Altadena.

The players still are looking for a barn or other building in which to rehearse, store scenery and build the set. Anyone interested in joining or anyone with information to help, may call Marilyn L. O'Donnell, treasurer, at ELgin 5-0824, or Vera Spanos at ELgin 5-7345.

Junior Women's Clubs Convening At Del Coronado

Members of the Arcadia Junior Woman's Club will attend the 33rd annual convention of the California Federation of Women's Clubs Junior Membership to be held May 25, 26, 27, at the Hotel Del Coronado, Coronado.

The theme is "Circle the World With Friendship." Mrs. Lorraine Seale, state president, and Mrs. Maggie Myers, state convention chairman, extend an invitation to all Junior Women's Clubs.

Three days of business sessions, workshops, luncheons and evening banquets will be started with registration at 9:30 a.m. May 25. State officials will be elected and installed. Awards will be given to individual clubs for outstanding achievements.

Almost every day, research into the medical use of radioactive isotopes is making new and heartening discoveries to help in mankind's age-old fight against disease. It is a bright side to atomic energy. turned him. What should he do about the baby? Did you kill them, too? He couldn't recall the instructions on that. Or whether it had even come up. But surely you weren't expected to kill a poor helpless little—No! Of course not! Those guys in the Kremlin were human. You would only be expected to kill the—

The girl had broken off her singing to laughingly snuggle her nose down into the soft fragrant crevice between the baby's head and shoulder and cluck mother talk to him. Her dark glossy curls, falling from her temples, curtained the baby's face from Ivan.

Now was the time to pull the trigger! He deflected the muzzle slightly downward for a heart shot. Stared as he thought he saw the barrel wavering. It was wavering. And it weighed 50 pounds! He cursed furiously. By God he was a coward! Pull! God damn you, pull!

CHAPTER 71

She was singing again. And this time she was looking him full in the sweat-dripping eyes. Not challengingly—not begging. Just gazing at him over the melody with a calm, peaceful, sisterly sort of acceptance of the fact that he loved this song, too, and was happy he had dropped in at the right time to hear it.

Christ! He wrenched out of it and jabbed the gun at her with finality. "Stop!"

To his utter disorganization and defeat, she smiled. The smile of a mother amused by the fierce pose of a young son playing bandit. He groaned helplessly. My God, was she blind? Was she an idiot?

He knew the answer was "no." She was perfectly aware of the situation. And perfectly unafraid. What in God Almighty's name was wrong with these people! Were they crazy! Didn't they know they couldn't win? Men—women—children: shot—raped—starved—frozen—imprisoned—worked to death! Oh, don't try to tell him! He'd heard—he'd read—talked to guys that had been there and seen it! Pravda and Radio Moscow he damned!

Things had not changed! They weren't improving! It was all bunk! Just pure unadulterated bunk! No wonder these well-liquored bastards in the Kremlin were paying big for this work. They wouldn't do it. They wouldn't even dare show themselves unguarded in the streets of Moscow itself!

Well... he was in it now. The thing to do was get this one over with then duck out of the business. Get home before he wound up like those guys with the school boys. Stay there and keep clean until enough people in Russia found out what he had learned: Communism was doomed. It simply went against human nature.

He pulled himself together for the sickening task. Sweat was oozing out all over his body. His palm on the gun handle was so slippery he was afraid it would squirt away. Steady, now. He closed his eyes—tugged! Nothing happened. He tugged again—mightily! He was tugging. He knew he was! The gun wouldn't go off! By God—

Uttering a hoarse, strangled cry of frustration and defeat, Ivan Stolypin flung violently around and fled the room. His headlong flight over the paved court to the street and thence to oblivion sent diminishing echoes back through the window.

CHAPTER 72

They did not disturb the young Hungarian mother continuing to sing serenely, lovingly, to her child. If "Death" had been there, she seemed not to have recognized it. Or recognizing it, had not cared. For she was Hungarian. She and her son and his son—were the deathless thing called liberty—Who would live on when they were gone...
